The quality of its education is based on a demanding system that combines theory and practice. Students benefit from in-depth scientific courses, rigorous education in Economics and Management, case studies, seminars and group work. It provides many opportunities for mobility through the international exchange.

Solvay Brussels School of Economics and Management (SBS-EM) was founded in 2008 following the merger of the Solvay Business School (founded in 1903 by the industrialist Ernest Solvay) and the Economics department (founded in 1899). In 2010, it led to the creation of an independent Faculty. It hosts more than 3,000 students in its Bachelor, Master and PhD programmes.

SBS-EM is internationally recognized as demonstrated by its position in rankings and by its accreditations, EQUIS and AMBA.

A comprehensive Faculty:
It offers 2 Bachelors, 6 Masters, 2 Complementary Masters, 4 Advanced Masters, 2 MBA (full-time and part-time), 20 Executive Education programmes, custom-made trainings for companies, PhD training in Economics and Management and 7 Postgraduate Masters in 2 Vietnamese universities (Ho Chi Minh City and Hanoi).

The quality of its education is based on a demanding system that combines theory and practice. Students benefit from in-depth scientific courses, rigorous education in Economics and Management, case studies, seminars and group work. It provides many opportunities for mobility through the international exchange programme, and the active learning of languages. The curriculum is aimed at optimizing interaction between students and professors and at stimulating entrepreneurship, analytical ability, decision making, ability to work as a team and openness to the world.

In the context of growing internationalization, a new programme in “Quantitative Techniques for Economics and Management” (QTEM) has been launched under the initiative of the SBS-EM. The QTEM network is expanding rapidly and consists of first-class Schools of Economics and Management.

After they graduate and throughout their whole career, former students benefit from a strong and active alumni network with about 20,000 members.

Knowledge for Impact

The Solvay Brussels School is the Faculty of Economics and Management of the Université libre de Bruxelles, with a century-old tradition of excellence in higher education.

Our mission is to have a decisive and positive impact on how economic and business challenges are addressed. We fulfill this mission by producing pioneering research and by educating men and women to become true leaders and entrepreneurs in their field.

VISION

We strive to meet the most pressing economic and business challenges of our time with a unique blend of scientific rigor, contextual engagement and problem-solving skills. This strengthens our position as a European reference for international students, practitioners and academics.

VALUES

Free inquiry: we challenge our students and stakeholders to open their minds to a wide range of perspectives.

Excellence: we all strive to the highest standards of performance in all our respects.

Equal opportunity: we provide access to students from all socio-economic backgrounds.

Democratic governance: practitioners, academics, researchers, students and staff have a voice in our governance.

Socio-economic impact: we nurture a long tradition of contributing expertise to public policy and the business world.
