eabh Workshop for New Scholars in Financial History

Brussels, March 9th and 10th 2015

Monday March 9th

1030-1100: Welcome Coffee

1100-1230: Session 1

Victoria Barnes (University of Reading): The Apple Doesn’t Fall Far from the Tree: English Bank Regulation and Branching Strategies in the Nineteenth Century. Discussant: Prof. Pierre-Guillaume Méon

1230-1330: Lunch

1330-1500: Keynote Speech

Kris Mitchener (Santa Clara University and NBER): The Great Recession as a Prism for the New Economic History of Banking.

1500-1530: Coffee Break

1530-1745: Session 2

William Quinn (Queen’s University Belfast): Squeezing the Bears: Cornering Risk and Limits on Arbitrage during the British Bicycle Mania, 1896-1898. Discussant: Prof. Ariane Szafarz
Tobias Vogelsang (London School of Economics): The Allied Distribution of Reparations after World War I Political Agency and the Performativity of Accounting. Discussant: Prof. Kim Oosterlinck

Andrea Papadia (London School of Economics): Sovereign Defaults during the Great Depression: New Data, New Evidence. Discussant: Prof. Kim Oosterlinck

1930: Dinner at Mirabelle
459, chaussée de Boondael (http://www.mirabelle.be/)

Tuesday March 10th

1000-1015: Kalina Dimitrova (National Bank of Bulgaria): Presentation of the South-East European Monetary History Data Volume.

1015-1045: Coffee Break

1045-1215: Session 4

1215: Lunch followed by the visit of the Cantillon Brewery