"Best promising scholars" award

Prof. Carine Peeters (CEB) and Mr. Julien Gooris (ECARES) received the « Best Promising Scholars » Award from the Academy of International Business, which held its 2011 meeting in Nagoya, Japan, on June 24-28.

The Beyond Basic Questions workshop was held at Centre Emile Bernheim on June 17-18. It was organized by Prof. Pierre-Guillaume Méon, director of CEB, and brought together European researchers in international political economy. The programme of the workshop can be found there. Programme.

Mrs. Anaïs Hamelin, Senior Researcher at the Centre Emile Bernheim (SBS-EM, Université Libre de Bruxelles) and at LARGE (Université de Strasbourg), won the AFFI-FNEGE Thesis Prize (Association Française de Finance - Fondation Nationale pour l'Enseignement de la Gestion des Entreprises). This yearly prize rewards the best thesis in the domain of Business Finance.

The winning thesis is entitled « Contrôle, financement et croissance des petites et moyennes entreprises » (Controle, financing and growth of SME's). It was produced under the direction of Prof. Michel Dietsch and Prof. Ariane Szafarz in collaboration between Université Libre de Bruxelle and Université de Strasbourg.

Stéphanie Collet, pursuing her PhD under the supervision of Kim Oosterlinck, won the "New Researchers Prize" at the Economic History Society for her paper entitled "A unified Italy? Sovereign debt and investor scepticism". This prize was awarded at the annual conference of the Economic History Society, which was held in Cambridge from 1 to 3 April.
