LITHUANIA AND VILNIUS IN SHORT

- Lithuania is the largest and southernmost country of the Baltic States, a fully-fledged member of the European Union and NATO.
- In 2011 Lithuania was one of the fastest growing economies in Europe (www.euobserver.com).
- Vilnius, the capital of Lithuania, boasts the largest old town districts in Eastern Europe that is a UNESCO world heritage site.
- The New York Times put Vilnius on the list of the cities that aim to be both smart and well managed, yet have an undeniably hip vibe (www.nytimes.com).
- The Curonian Spit is included in the UNESCO List of World Natural Heritage as one of Europe’s most beautiful and unique landscapes. Lonely Planet lists it among the world’s 10 most idyllic, sun-kissed refuges.
- Eastern Europe’s largest castle on an island is situated near Vilnius in Trakai.

The experience that I got taking part in ISM’s Summer School in Lithuania I’ll remember for my whole life. The subject I took there was interesting to study. Professors made it easy to be into the subject, stay concentrated and interested when it was summertime. ISM did everything for students to enjoy the time in Lithuania. Vilnius is beautiful and the place where ISM is situated as well.
