Terms and conditions

- Students are expected to attend all scheduled classes and participate fully in group work where required.
- The School reserves the right in its absolute discretion to terminate studies before the end of the programme or to exclude from the exams, if a student:
 - a) Fails to comply with these Terms and Conditions or with other rules and regulations of the Solvay Brussels School of Economics and Management
 - b) Does not attend at least 4/6 of the programme and 3/4 of each module;
 - c) Fails to comply with the grading rules of the programme;
 - d) Or behaves in a manner which is prejudicial to the interests of the School.
- In such circumstances, the student will be liable for the full fees for that academic year (9.750 €).
- If fee payments are not received by the dates required and no prior arrangements have been made, the student will be immediately de-registered.
- A student who withdraws from the master after the beginning of the courses is liable for the full fees.
- Cancellations must be received in writing. Based on the date of the notification, the following penalties will be applied:
 - Before the start: pre-payment (1000 €) will not be reimbursed. If the registration is postponed to the following year, such amount will be reported.
 - After the start of the programme: full registration fees are due (with possibility to take the programme one year later)

I, the undersigned, have read and fully understood the above terms and conditions and agree to comply with them.
