Terms and conditions

- Students are expected to attend all scheduled classes and participate fully in group work where required.
- The school reserves the right in its absolute discretion to terminate studies before the end of the programme or to exclude from the exams, if a student:
 - Fails to comply with these terms and conditions or with other rules and regulations of the Solvay Brussels School of Economics and Management
 - Does not attend at least 70% of the programme;
 - Fails to comply with the grading rules of the programme;
 - Or behaves in a manner which is prejudicial to the interests of the school

In such circumstances, the student will be liable for the full fees for that academic year.

- If fee payments are not received by the dates required and no prior arrangements have been made, the student will be immediately de-registered.
- Cancellations must be received in writing. Based on the date of the notification, the following penalties will be applied:
 - Less than 30 days before the start of the programme: an administrative fee of 1000 € will be charged (deductible in case of enrolment the following year)
 - After the start of the programme: full registration fees are due (with possibility to take the programme one year later)

I, the undersigned, have read and fully understood the above terms and conditions and agree to comply with them.
